Updates to Proxy Statement Disclosure.

The Company has announced that the Extension Amendment Proposal (as described in the Proxy Statement) will be amended to extend the termination date to April 28, 2024, and will allow the Company’s board of directors (without approval from the holders of shares of Class A Common Stock) to extend the termination date up to eleven times, each by one additional month for a total of up to twelve additional months to complete a business combination). Further details are provided in the updates to the disclosure below.

The below disclosure in the letter to stockholders, notice of the stockholder meeting and pages 12, 19, 26 and 33 in the Proxy Statement is amended as follows:

“If the Extension Amendment Proposal is approved and the Charter Extension becomes effective, within five (5) business days of the date of the Stockholder Meeting, the Sponsor (or one or more of its affiliates, members or third-party designees) (the “Lender”) shall make a deposit into the Trust Account (as defined below) of $60,000, in exchange for one or more non-interest bearing, unsecured promissory notes issued by the Company to the Lender. In addition, if the Extension Amendment Proposal is approved and the Charter Extension becomes effective, in the event that the Company has not consummated a business combination by April 28, 2024, without approval of the holders of the Class A Common Stock (the “Public Stockholders”), the Company may, by resolution of the Board, if requested by the Sponsor, and upon five days’ advance notice prior to the applicable Termination Date, extend the Termination Date up to eleven times, each by one additional month (for a total of up to twelve additional months to complete a business combination), provided that the Lender will deposit $60,000 into the Trust Account for each month so extended, for an aggregate deposit of up to $660,000 (if all eleven additional monthly extensions are exercised), in exchange for a non-interest bearing, unsecured promissory note issued by the Company to the Lender. If the Company completes a business combination, it will, at the option of the Lender, repay the amounts loaned under the promissory note or convert a portion or all of the amounts loaned under such promissory note into warrants, which warrants will be identical to the Private Placement Warrants (as defined below). If the Company does not complete a business combination by the applicable Termination Date, such promissory note will be repaid only from funds held outside of the Trust Account or will be forfeited, eliminated or otherwise forgiven (emphasis added).”

A copy of the proposed amendment is set forth in Annex A to the accompanying proxy statement; and (emphasis added)”

The below disclosure in the notice of the stockholder meeting is amended as follows:

The Company believes that it is advisable and in the best interests of the Company’s stockholders to continue the Company’s existence until April 28, 2024 (or March 28, 2025, if requested by the Sponsor) in order to allow the Company additional time to complete the Business Combination and is therefore holding this Stockholder Meeting (emphasis added).”
